

World Gluten Free Beer Award 2019

REGULATION

1. Admission of the beers

1.1. All beers marketed as "gluten-free" are eligible to enter the competition. The participating beers must be regularly on the market on the date of registration. The commercialization of beers can take place in any country in the world;

1.2. It is allowed to participate with beers produced with naturally gluten-free grains, or beers produced with malted barley/wheat deglutinate (less than 20 ppm);

1.3. The beers will be divided in the the following categories:

- Category A: low and high fermentation - low alcohol content (<5.5%);
- Category B: low and high fermentation - high alcohol content (\geq 5.6%);
- Category C: low and high fermentation - hopped beers (Ipa, Apa, Aipa, Neipa, etc...);
- Category D: low and high fermentation - dark beers (stout, porter, dark lager, etc...);
- Category E: low and high fermentation - spiced and special beers.

1.4. The breweries have to decide in which category enter their beers.

2. Judges

2.1. The jury will be composed of beer tasters, journalists and sector experts;

2.2. The jury will make a blind test of the beer. Only the style of inspiration, the alcohol and particular spiciness and flavorings will be reported, if these items will be in the notes of the breweries.

3. Judging criteria

3.1. Each beer can get the highest score of 50 points by each judge, as follows:

- Appearance (color, clarity and foam) = 10 points;
- Aroma = 20 points;
- Taste = 20 points.

3.2. The style will not be relevant for purposes of voting. However, the style declaration is required in order the member of the jury can conduct a proper beer tasting.

4. Winners

- 4.1. The jury will decide the top three winners in each category (high scores);
- 4.2. The winners will be awarded during the event "World Gluten Free Beer Award" (Napoli, from the 20th to the 22th December 2019).

5. Participation fee

- 5.1. Participation fee, including the first beer, is € 80,00 until 10 October (€ 100,00 from 11 October to 30 November);
- 5.2. For each additional beer, after the first one, the participation fee is € 50,00 until 10 October (€ 70,00 from 11 October to 30 November).
